LEXINGTON

Court of Common Pleas convened here on the 13th inst. with Hon. George W. Gage presiding. He was immediately ready to transact business, but court was brought to a stand still when the first case on docket no. 1 was called, as plaintiffs, though practically ready, could not take it up until the arrival of Andrew Crawford, Esquire, from Columbia. His associate felt a reluctance in taking up these cases before his arrival, as he was senior counsel for plaintiffs.
After some deliberation the court upon motion of Attorneys for defendant continued them beyond terms.
Court having nothing to do adjourned till 9.30 next morning, and in the meantime a bar meeting was held and it was concluded that no cases below 41 on the calendar would be taken up this term.

The first case for trial was that of Ernest Nobles vs. Seaboard Air Line Railway. This action was brought by Messrs. De Vore and Smith of Edgefield bar with Col. J. Brooks Wingard of this bar as associate. Nobles, colored, asked for ten thousand dollars damage and the jury after some deliberation brought out a verdict for the defendant.

The next case Beechman vs. Seaboard Air Line Railway was in progress of trial at this writing.

The case of W. J. McCarthy vs. C.
N. and L. Ry. was settled, and there being no other jury cases for trial at this term the remaining jurors were dismissed.

The equity business will be taken up immediately upon the conclusion of the jury cases.

The constables of a few of the magistrates of this county were presented by the grand jury for failing to file bonds as required by law, and magistrate W. R. Hilderbrand of Swanesee was presented for negligent, improper and unlawful dispositions of fines collected by him, and also, as with

Craft,
Isaac Edwards,
W. A. Bundrick,
S. M. Craft,
J. H. Koon,
Geo. T. Carson,
Mr. Jno. J. Taylor was elected mayor of this town on the 6th inst with the following aldermen, W. W. Barre,
J. J. Brickley,
B. D. Clark,
W. A. Harman,
Martin Shealy,
Sam P. Roof,

There is evidence of much improvement in this place of late.

There was a good many prominent jacks in attendance upon court.

It seems like everybody around here is getting married, or preparing to enter into matrimonial contracts these days.

EXTENSION WORK OF THE CLEMSON AGRICULTURAL COLLEGE OF SOUTH CARO- LINA.

A coach has been loaned to Clemson College by the Southern Railway and will be transported free of cost to all parts of the State reached by the tracks of that Company. The Atlantic Coast Line Railway has also voted to run this coach over their track free of cost to the College.

This will enable the authorities of Clemson College to reach the people in all portions of South Carolina with valuable instruction on practical questions relating to Agriculture, Mechanical, Civil and Electrical Engineering, Textile and Chemical Industry, Geology and general industrial education. There will be in this car, besides the experts, the needed apparatus, appliances, tools and implements to make the course of instruction highly entertaining and valuable.
Specimens of plants, insects, minerals etc., will be found in this car. A first-class lantern slides on many subjects, will be placed in the car for the free and liberal use of the people.

Experts, not only from the College, but from other portions of the country, will be sent with the car to furnish information on the many industrial subjects demanding the attention of the people.

On Wednesday, Nov. 22 the Agricultural Experts from Clemson College will hold their complete demonstration outfit will hold a public meeting here in Batesburg.

DEATH OF CAPTAIN WARD.

To the Batesburg Advocate, Wards, S. C. Nov. 15, 05. All that was mortal of Capt. C. Ward now sleeps under a little mound, which lies in the Spans church cemetery, in the little town of Wards. Capt. Ward died Tuesday morning quarter of four Nov. 14, 05 and was laid to rest on Wednesday Nov. 15th. He left surviving him his loving and devoted wife, Martha Ward, two brothers and one sister. Thus another of our old land marks has gone. Capt. Ward was 77 years old at his death.

The Wards community has lost a good generous and upright man. It was the privilege of the writer to know this venerable and highly esteemed citizen for nearly two years, during which time life seemed as sweet as incense breathing morn. He always treated his friends with that cordiality with which only a born gentleman can treat you. To know Capt. Ward was to love him; his heart was as large as himself. He was a neighbor, who had no bickerings with his fellow man, living near him. He was always cheerful and very fond of young people especially was he devoted to children.

In our various conversations with him, he always regretted seeing any downfall of a young person, and was always ready to stretch out his hand to help. He was full of charity and to illustrate same, I will say to my own knowledge, Capt. Ward fed, clothed and educated eleven of his nieces and nephews.

Would that we had space to give a full account of this good man. We had the good fortune to be able to attend his funeral, and never have we seen such an outpouring of people, who came to bid him a last farewell. There were among those present people from Trenton, Johnston, Ridge Spring, Mo-neta, Columbia and many other parts of the state. Capt. Ward was a good husband, a dutiful father, a good neighbor, and when needed, a trust he sleeps in peace.

Wards, S. C.

WARDS.

Our town was made quite sad when the death of Captain Clinton Ward, the fanher of our little town; was made known. The Captain was so very good hearted, always ready to give to just and good causes. The entire family has the sympathy of all the surrounding country. Captain Ward's remains will be buried at the town cemetery on Wednesday at eleven o'clock.

Messrs Burrell Boatwright and James Jones were seen on our streets Sunday afternoon.

Prof. Whittle has just recovered from a severe case of bronchitis; we are certainly glad to know that the Prof will be able to resume his work on Thursday.

Mrs. J. O. La Grone has just returned from a visit to friends and relatives at Graniteville, Aiken and many other large towns.

Mrs. Homer Thrallkill spent Thursday in our little city.

Mr. George Edwards has gone home quite sick with a case of La Grippe; hope he will soon be well.

Col. C. L. Jones and Mr. Jake Buz-hardt spent Tuesday in Saluda.

Rev. and Mrs. Bass spent Tuesday afternoon in Johnston.

Col. C. L. Jones will visit Laurens and many other points before returning home.

Miss Estelle Buzhardt attended services at Dry Creek Sunday afternoon. She was accompanied by Mr.
J. Hunyan Watson.
